

Laird's

YEAR OLD Apple Brandy

★
TEN GENERATIONS.
THIRTEEN YEARS.
ONE BOTTLE.

Before whiskey had a name, there was apple brandy. It was not imported, not adapted; it was grown, fermented, and distilled here. Celebrating 250 years of American heritage, Laird's 13 Year Old Apple Brandy is a tribute to tradition, time, and the true American Spirit.

100% APPLE DISTILLATE

Made from a blend of local apple varieties.

13 YEARS AGED

Aged in charred oak barrels for 13 years or more.

56% ABV / 112 PROOF

Bold, full-bodied, and impeccably balanced.

250 YEARS OF AMERICAN HISTORY

A legacy of quality and craftsmanship.

TASTING NOTES

AROMA

Rich baked apple, caramel, vanilla, and toasted oak.

TASTE

Full and smooth with layers of spiced apple, toffee, dried fruit, and warm oak.

FINISH

Long and elegant with lingering oak, spice, and a touch of honey.

THE NUMBERS

1,300 BOTTLES:

100 bottles for each of the original colonies. A finite tribute to the 13 states that became a nation.

56 % ABV:

1% of alcohol for each of the 56 signers of the Declaration of Independence.

13 YEARS:

13 years in oak, one for every original colony. An apple brandy that has taken its time.

250:

250 years of independence. Ten generations of family distilling the same spirit that helped build it all.

THE ORIGINAL AMERICAN SPIRIT.
